

Tools For Keeping Your Kids Safe Online

Web Watcher- www.webwatcherkids.com Allows parents to block websites and record on and offline activity, including keystrokes, IM, and email messages; used by government and law enforcement agencies.

Guardian Family Monitor- www.guardiansoftware.com Let's families track all online activity. Creates a log and allows video recording of the monitor.

IamBigBrother- www.iambigbrother.com Shows everything kids have done online, including screen captures of emails.

Net Nanny- www.netnanny.com Filtering software that protects kids from seeing things they don't need to see online while freely browsing.

Cybersitter- www.cybersitter.com Customize what you want them to see and record facebook chats and posts.

Norton Online Family- onlinefamily.norton.com Encourages parent and child communication and helps parents understand what kids are doing online, has an app so you can check in while on the go.

Zoodles- www.zoodles.com An app that let's kids play free games and watch videos online that are safe. You can set time limits and restrict access to specific games.

Kidzul- www.kidzul.com All sites available have been reviewed to ensure they are appropriate.

Mobicip- www.Mobicip.com Safeguard mobile device activities.

K-9- www.k9webprotection.com Set time limits, block websites, force safe searches, view activity reports.

Source: The Modern Parent's Guide to Kids and Video Games

by Scott Steinberg

